MULL TAKES THE LAST GAME FROM THE FINNS

Breitenstien, Tribble and Malarky Sent to the Rubber by the Montgomery Manager in Order to Save the Day.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 8.—(Special.) "Swede" Jansing lapsed into his old habits again this afternoon in the final game with Montgomery. Down at the third corner sack he performed indifferently compared to his work of the past few games, with the result that Mullany's aggression was able to leave the Rock City with one game to their credit out of the four played. The score was 8 to 6. Montgomery saving the day by hitting the ball in the ninth and on account of an error by Jansing.

Jack Ely held up the local end of the rubber. The veteran was there with his usual good article. He was hit freely, it is true, but had his mates assisted him properly, he would undoubtedly have played the result on the right side of the ledger.

Mullany had trouble with his twirlers. He opened the game with Breitenstien performing. This abanman was forced out in the eighth. Tribble came to his rescue, but this man, too, suffered, and a 3rd last recourse Mull had to bring Malarky from under cover to save the day. The three pitchers yielded twelve hits. Breitenstien, Mullany, and Apperious, cf., 4 1 1 0 0 0.

A FEW FOUL TIPS. At home today. Birmingham here for five games. Something saved out of the wreck in Nashville.

Guess that four-flushing Atlanta will feel more inclined than ever to get out of the Southern League now—our games lost in two days is going some and ought to put the Atlanta team where it belongs—in a brush league.

Beginning today, the Climbers have thirty-four more scheduled games—nineteen scheduled at home and fifteen scheduled on the road. A big majority of the games to be played at Athletic Park are double headers and with about eight of them at home games double headers, there will be something like twenty-seven to be played here yet. Supposing that five of the 42 ten games on the road are double headers that will make twenty games on the road and about forty-seven games yet to be played. From this, it can be seen that they have an excellent chance to finish high up and the local fans will certainly be with them.

UMPIRE BUCKLEY RELEASED. Kavanaugh Not Pleased With the Arbitrator's Work. Little Rock, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Umpire W. J. E. who has been working in the Southern League since the beginning of the season, has been advised by President Kavanaugh that his services will no longer be required. It is said that his work has not been altogether satisfactory. President Kavanaugh is endeavoring to secure two additional umpires for the remainder of the season. Judge Kavanaugh says the race is getting so hot that he wants to get two of the best men he can find in the business.

BERT NOBLETT QUILTS. Refuses to Pay the Fine Assessed by Tackberry. Little Rock, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Infielder Noblett, who was secured by Little Rock from Montgomery in a trade for McCann, has announced that he will not play longer with the Franchises and will leave tomorrow for his home in Grand Rapids, Mich. Noblett was fined during a game at Little Rock by Umpire Tackberry. The fine was reported to President Kavanaugh who waited a reasonable time for Noblett to settle and then notified both Noblett and Chief Zimmer that unless the fine was paid in ten days Noblett would be suspended. Noblett said he would not pay the fine and stuck to that determination. He was suspended today by President Kavanaugh and said that he would leave tomorrow for Grand Rapids.

NEGROES ARE PROSPEROUS. Columbus, Ga., August 8.—(Special.)—The assessed valuation of the property owned by negroes in Muscogee county is $55,500 more than it was a year ago, these figures being shown by the consolidated tax returns of county property owned by negroes.

RUDDERHAM GUILTY

JURY FIXES FINE OF BASEBALL UMPIRE AT $50.

He Was Indicted For Using Profane Language on Diamond At Athletic Grounds During Last May.

Charged with using profane and abusive language in the presence of ladies on the baseball field at Athletic Park, Umpire F. R. Rudderham, 0. Park, Umpire F. R. Rudderham, was convicted by the Southern League, was convicted by a jury at 7 o'clock last night in the criminal division of the City Court and a fine of $50 was assessed against him.

Bernard Frank, a well known business man of Montgomery, confessed judge of Rudderham, and Judge W. H. Thomas ordered the release of the umpire.

Ray Rushton, attorney for Rudderham, had not decided last night whether the case would be appealed to the Supreme Court.

The jury that convicted Rudderham was composed of W. H. Maybin, J. M. Farmer, D. W. Owen, T. J. Graves, M. F. Gore, M. M. Martin, Walter Wiley, F. M. McQueen, J. M. Barnett, C. A. Griffith, R. E. Garrett and H. M. Austin.

The Rudderham case was called for trial at 1:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. About fifteen of the State's witnesses were absent and Judge Thomas ordered attachments for them. Pending the serving of these attachments, court was recessed until 3:30 o'clock.

When Judge Thomas re-opened the court at 3:30 o'clock, a large crowd was present and the absent crowd was in the court room eager to hear the trial of the case. Rudderham was there with his attorney, Mr. Rushton, and he appeared in the least troubled over the case. The State's side of the case was presented by Solicitor S. H. Dent and Assistant Solicitor Seibels.

Testimony in the proceeding was heard at once and the State called the following witnesses to the stand: John A. Elmore, United States Commissioner; O. C. Roberts, patrolman; Hal Scott, Tom Lewis, Riley Brown, Julius Pierce, R. M. Moore and E. G. Adams.

The defendant introduced the following witnesses: Bernard Frank, F. B. White and W. H. Ragland, general manager of the Montgomery Traction Company.

Assistant Solicitor W. T. Seibels opened the argument for the State. He was followed by Attorney Rushton for the defense, and the speaking was closed by Solicitor S. H. Dent for the State. The charge of Judge Thomas dealt with the legal phase of the case. It occupied only about ten minutes. The jury retired at 4:35 o'clock and a verdict was reached in twenty-five minutes.

The profane and abusive language is alleged to have been used by Rudderham during a baseball game with Shreveport on May 30. He is said to have become enraged when two bottles were thrown at him from the bleachers and gave utterance to some very objectionable epithets.
